ies Held Outing Today

St. John's day is celebrated annually by the members of the Knights Templar and today the outing of Pilgrim Commandery No. 9 of this city, and Bethany Commandery No. 17 of Lawrence is being held at Canobie Lake park.

Prior to the outing there was a parade, or rather two very imposing parades, through the city, the batty uniforms and line marching being greatly admired. The members of Pilgrim Commandery met at the asylum in Masonic temple at 9:30 o'clock and forming in line marched to Appleton street in the vicinity of the depot where they received the visiting commandery. Upon the arrival of the members of the commandery from Lawrence the line of parade was reformed and they marched to Merrimack street in the vicinity of city hall where special cars were taken for Canobie Lake park.

Hundreds of people lined the streets along the route of march to and from the depot to view the members of the different commanderies.

The members of the local commandery met at the asylum in the Masonic temple in Merrimack street at 9:30 o'clock and shortly after ten o'clock headed by the Lowell Military band, marched through the streets to the Northern depot and received the members of Bethany Commandery of Lawrence.

At the head of the parade was Fred H. Pearson, who acted as band guide. Following him was the Lowell Military band, and then came the members of the organization. Eminent Commander Frederick W. Parnham had the right of line and following him were Eminent Sirs Frank K. Stearns, Frank J. Weaver and James P. Savage, after whom came the members of the commandery.

The members of Bethany Commandery, of Lawrence, arrived at the Middlesex street station at 10:30 o'clock and accompanied by the Lawrence brass band and headed by Generalissimo Harry G. Pollard of Pilgrim Commandery and Eminent Commander Thomas Andrews of Bethany Commandery, marched through Thordike street to Appleton street where they were saluted by the members of the local commandery.

Then the line was re-formed and marched through Appleton street, to Thordike, to Middlesex, to Central to Merrimack where the parade was reviewed in front of the Masonic temple by Eminent Sir Knights Frank L. Weaver, Frank K. Stearns and James P. Savage of Pilgrim Commandery; Eminent Commander Thomas Andrews, Generalissimo Ora W. Boothby and Capt. Gen. Dean K. Webster of Bethany Commandery of Lawrence and Lafayette G. Blair, Grand Generalissimo of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, the latter being the inspecting officer of the day.

One of the features of the parade was the trio of color bearers in the Pilgrim Commandery. Alexander Duncan was the beaumont, Charles H. Robbins carried the commandery flag and Walter M. N. Allen was the bearer of the national colors.

After passing in review at the Masonic temple the members of both commanderies marched to city hall

EXPRESS DELIVERY

Mass Meeting Called to Protest
Against Its Limit

A mass meeting for the purpose of starting an organized protest against the present system of delivering express packages in this city will be held under the auspices of the board of trade at the rooms of that body next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The board of trade has been studying this important subject for some time and is prepared to start an organized movement for a general delivery within the city limits.

The board invites the public, particularly those who live in the districts shut out by the express companies, and a large attendance is desired.

The delivery limit set by the American Express Co. eliminates practically all of Pawtucketville, farther Chelmsford street and the upper Highlands.

Hallet & Davis Piano

Abbe Perosi is the great successor of Palestrina as director of the Sistine Choir, which sings only for the Pope. The Abbe is known the world over, and is unquestionably one of the leading musical authorities.

Paris was in a furor recently when the Abbe conducted one of his oratorios at the Trocadero. His coming to America next fall is eagerly awaited by musical people everywhere. He has composed over 20 famous oratorios.

This is the first time the Abbe has ever endorsed a piano, and the following appreciation is absolutely voluntary:

April 22, 1910.
Hotel Vouillemont, Paris.

To Gustin Wright Co., Paris:—

During my visit to your waterworks this morning I had the pleasure of trying the small grand Hallet & Davis of Boston piano, and I take pleasure in adding my testimonial to those of the eminent artists you have already received.

The purity and sweetness of tone, mingled with such a delicacy of touch, make this instrument stand in the front rank of the world's pianos and meets the most difficult artistic requirements.

Sincerely,

M. Lorenzo Perosi,

BABY FOUND DEAD

Evidently Had Died
From Convulsions

Edward Davis, aged four months, 19 days, child of Edward and Elizabeth Davis, was found dead in his cradle this morning by the mother. Medical Examiner Meigs and the police were notified.

It is supposed that the child, who was subject to convulsions, was overcome by the heat and died during the night. After an investigation by Inspector Maher and the medical examiner it was concluded that the child died from natural causes.

BOY WILL TAKE PLACE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 24.—The first ring contest of importance in California since Gov. Gillett placed the ban on the sport a week ago will take place at Naud Junction tonight when Abe Attell and Owen Moran meet in a scheduled ten round bout. District Attorney Fredericks has issued a statement in which he says the contests as conducted here conform to the city ordinance.

DEATHS

WINTERS.—The many friends of Mrs. Mary J. Winters will be pained to learn of her sad demise which occurred at her late residence, 15 Oak street, Thursday evening. She was the wife of John H. Winters, the well known policeman. She leaves four children besides her husband to mourn her loss: also her father, Jeremiah J. Harrington, driver the steamer 4; one sister and four brothers.

CHEANEY.—Now has been received in this city the death of Mr. Lewis Cheaney, at Lubec, Me., Monday, June 20th. He was a former resident of this city and was employed for a number of years by the late firm of Miller Brothers, grocers, corner of Bridge and Third streets. Mr. Cheaney was well known here, and his many friends will mourn his untimely death. Burial took place Thursday, June 23d, at Lubec, Me.

MACKENZIE.—The many Lowell friends of Arthur W. Mackenzie will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred Sunday last at his home, 225 Lamartine street, Jamaica Plain. The cause of death was heart trouble induced at the outset by several attacks of rheumatic fever. During his last sickness, which was of several weeks duration, everything that medical science could suggest was resorted to and several times it appeared that the patient was on the mend, but previous attacks had so undermined him that the response to treatment proved but temporary. He bore his sufferings with great patience and his one concern to the end was for the welfare of his relatives who survive him, principally among whom are his wife, mother, two sisters and a brother. Mr. Mackenzie was for years a summer resident of Salem, and as such, made many friends among the Lowell colony.

The funeral took place Wednesday from his late home, and burial was in Forest Hill cemetery.

SOWSA.—Frank Sowsa, infant son of Antonia and Anna Do Caracus Sowsa, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents, 16 Penn avenue, aged eight months.

FUNERAL NOTICE

ROSS.—Died June 23 at his home, 38 First street, Mauro Ross, aged 61 years, 11 months. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the funeral rooms of C. M. Young, 33 Prescott street. Friends invited. Burial private.

CITY SOLICITOR

According to the opinion of City Solicitor Duncan, Frank M. Broman is not legally entitled to draw a salary for the time during which he assumed to act as a member of the board of assessors.

Mayor Meehan appointed Mr. Broman to act as assessor until such time as the city council succeeded in electing a successor to the late Abel Wheeler. There is about $30 due Mr. Broman for his services as acting assessor.

Mayor Meehan was very much surprised when he learned that the city solicitor had given as his opinion that Mr. Broman was not entitled to draw salary.

"Why, I called the city solicitor by phone before making the appointment and asked him if such an appointment would be legal," said the mayor, "and his answer was: 'I think it's all right; go ahead.' I knew that other mayors had appointed acting heads of departments, such as auditor, purchasing agent and superintendent of streets, and I knew that I was not establishing a precedent. But to make sure, I called the city solicitor and he made such answer as I have given you."

The opinion contains one paragraph that rather reveals the city solicitor's uncertainty in the matter. The paragraph reads as follows:

"It is possible, though still doubtful, that the mayor in the event that irreparable loss or injury would fall on the city or the business of a department come to a standstill through failure of the city council to act, might in such a contingency take action himself."

REV. JOHN HUNTER

Scotch Preacher at the First Universalist Church

A fair-sized audience gathered at the First Universalist church last night to hear Rev. Dr. John Hunter, pastor of the Trinitarian Congregational church of Glasgow, Scotland. It was a religious service, with sacred music by the choir, and scripture reading by Rev. R. A. Greene. Dr. Hunter preached from the text: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind and with all thy strength; and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." He said in part:

"It is impossible to define adequately the greatest things. It is indeed the things which are simplest and most easily understood that are often the most difficult to define. Who can define religion? To define it is very much like defining the air we breathe or the universe we inhabit. We must interpret our religion by its most perfect quality and expression. Many definitions of religion have been given, but there is one which includes them all; it is that given by Jesus in our text. 'Jesus recognized the law of continuity when he made the love of God and man the gospel lesson of religion and life. 'Many think that they honor Christ by seeking to prove that he taught that which was absolutely new. We honor him more by acknowledging that he taught what the prophets of the race had more or less clearly seen. The religion of Christianity consists not so much in introducing new ideas into the religions of mankind, as in purifying, widening, deepening, making vivid, those which are already there—love to God and love to man. Jesus led men backward in order to lead them forward.

"The text also is to be valued because of its suggestion of the absolute simplicity of true religion. All of the great religious teachers and helpers of men move and work toward simplicity. 'But let us not suppose, because a thing is simple, that it has been easily reached. True simplicity in thought and life is not a rallying point, but a goal. At the struggle, the discipline and teaching covered in many hundred years of history, were necessary to the production of the simplicity which is in Christ.

"The simplicity of this idea of religion was in vivid contrast with much of the Judaism of our Lord's time; and it contrasts as vividly with much of the Christianity of our time.

"The reformer is ever the man who recalls us from troubling about many things, to the few things that are essential. But this idea of religion is not quite so easy as it at first appears. It is true that we cannot force ourselves to love God, yet we may learn to love him. Our text is not so much a commandment as the expression of an ideal. I must strive after this, reach it, realize it, in order to be all that I ought to be and can be. We needs must love the highest when we see it. Men often love God without knowing it. We cannot, it is true, love at the word of command, but on the other hand, one who does not or cannot love what is truly lovable and does not in some degree live a life of love, is surely something other than and less than a man. The full and perfect love of God, though it cannot be reached by a single bound, yet wherever a human soul feels the throes of sympathy toward everything that is lovable, it is beginning to love God.

"But true religion is not only of the heart. It is of the soul, that highest range of the spiritual which relates man directly to God. There can be little real religion apart from each man's personal experience and appreciation of his own relationship to God. 'We must also love God with all our mind. This means that we must give to the proper study of mankind which is God, our mental energies in their very best. Richer, stronger in every way, will our religion be, through recognizing that it is our duty to love God with all the mind as well as with all the heart and soul. How much mind are we putting into our effort to love God?

"That precious as all these are, they do not cover the whole of religion, the whole of the love of God. Our affections and efforts need to be manifested in a life of obedience and service. And so the commandment bids us love God with all our strength. That is, with all our powers.

"Our religion must be a practical force, a power working for truth and goodness in a life. How much strength are we putting into our effort to love God?

"Wherever his religion has had full course, it has fused into one great spiritual passion the love of God and the love of man. Love for man is only possible in a large and permanent way, to those who love God. The modern tendency to separate the first and second commandment is to be deplored.

"Men and women, are we loving God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind and with all our strength?"

THE U. S. SENATE

Discussed Matter of Forest Reserves

WASHINGTON, June 24.—With the thermometer standing at almost 80 degrees in the shade, the senate spent the greater part of an unusually long session yesterday in considering the bill looking to the creation of forest reserves in the White mountains and the southern Appalachians. After Senator Brandegee had concluded a speech in support of the bill, Sen. Newlands took the floor in opposition and it soon became evident that a filibuster for the defeat of the bill was in progress. Sen. Burton was especially antagonistic to the bill. When Mr. Newlands suspended, the Ohio senator asked that the bill be laid aside for the day. There was immediate and determined objection thereto from several of the friends of the bill. Dr. Brandegee said in private conversation that he would hold the senate as late as possible. Sen. Burton responded that he could talk until midnight if unable to obtain adjournment, and he added that several senators desired to be heard.

During Mr. Newlands' speech he had spent much time in presenting his plan of co-operation and co-ordination and was proceeding to show how the present administration was departing from the Roosevelt policy of conservation, when Mr. Gallinger interrupted. "Is Jefferson's manual recognized as authority in the senate?" asked the New Hampshire senator. When the chair assented, he asked to have read the following rule: "No one is to talk impudently or to discuss the question superfluously or tediously." Mr. Gallinger made the point that Mr. Newlands was not speaking to the question.

"He is talking on every subject under heaven," he declared. Mr. Newlands insisted, however that his remarks were pertinent, and Mr. Gallinger did not press his point. At 6:30 o'clock Mr. Burton moved an adjournment and the motion being lost, took the floor as if to begin his speech in opposition to the bill. He complained that the senate had been discourteous in refusing to adjourn and announced that he should expect the attendance of a quorum while he spoke.

Mr. Gore thereupon made the point of no quorum. A roll call revealed the presence of only forty senators of the 47 necessary to do business. A quorum finally was obtained at 7:05 and on motion of Sen. Gallinger, the senate then took a recess until 10 o'clock this morning.

INVITATIONS TO TAFT
WASHINGTON, June 24.—With the approach of the adjournment of congress, President Taft is being flooded with invitations to visit various sections of the country.

An invitation was received yesterday to attend the reunion of the Sixteenth regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers association to be held at The Weirs, N. H., late in August. The president is contemplating a motor trip into the White Mountains some time in August, and if he makes one he will stop at the Weirs.

RECIPE FOR ICED TEA
Make the hot tea in the usual way, then strain it into a pitcher. Let it stand in a cool place. When about to serve, put two cubes of block sugar in each glass, half fill the glass with ice broken up very fine, add a slice of lemon, and serve. Just before the lemon is added, squeeze a little of it into the glass. The best tea can be made by using Tudor brand. This tea gives an inviting wine color, and is far more healthful and invigorating than other teas. In using Tudor brand, use half a teaspoonful instead of the usual teaspoonful to each cup. As this tea, although costing no more, goes twice as far in regard to strength.

CLOSING EXERCISES

Held at St. Michael's School
Last Evening

The annual closing exercises of St. Michael's parochial school were held last evening in the basement of the church and were of the high order characteristic of this school and its teachers, the Dominican nuns.

Despite the hot weather, a large gathering of friends of the graduates and pupils attended, the basement being comfortably filled. The exercises took place on a temporary and neatly decorated stage within the sanctuary hall. In the rear of the stage in the center was a large portrait of Rev. John J. Shaw, the zealous pastor of St. Michael's church, who is particularly interested in the school work. This year's showing has been particularly gratifying to both pastor and teachers. The attendance has averaged 550 daily, an increase over the year preceding, while the results have been most satisfactory.

EMPIRE THEATRE

The Reception of Roosevelt in New York on June 18 is the feature picture at the Empire, and this subject makes a real feature. First the subject is one in which we are all interested and would like to have been in New York to welcome Roosevelt home, and now will be able to see how our fellow citizens treated him. And then the photography is so good. The picture is clear and you can get a fine knowledge of all that went on the day Roosevelt came home.

To make the show complete, Netta
Kline shows a novelty singing and dancing act, and Reynolds & Anderson in their comedy skit and talking sketch keep up a continuous ear.
Then there are several dramatic and comic moving pictures.

CARE OF BABIES

Rules Sent Out By the Board of Health

The board of health has for the last few years been sending out literature relative to the care of children. This is the season of the year that is most important for the babies and a few rules on the care of children will assist in protecting the babies against cholera infantum.

The milk depot will go a good deal in this direction, but the depot is not yet sufficiently well patronized to be of general assistance. A reporter for The Sun called at the milk depot this afternoon and found Miss Alice M. Lindsey, the nurse in care of the depot, busily engaged in the work of preparing milk. Miss Lindsey said that the committee of the Young Women's Guild responsible for the depot is quite satisfied with the progress that is being made.

"We have quite a few customers now," said Miss Lindsey, "but you know we haven't had very much business yet. The dangerous season for babies and the time when they most need prepared milk is about to set in, and I presume that July will be a pretty busy month. We want to reach as many babies as we possibly can."

Here are a few of the rules sent out by the board of health, for the care of children:

Nursing

Nurse at regular intervals. A baby is not hungry every time it cries. Do not overfeed it. If the baby is not hungry, it will not suck. If the baby is thirsty or feverish, let it drink frequently of cold water or barley water, but allow only one or two swallowings at a time.

Feeding

Use a plain bottle with black rubber nipple. Have no tubes in it, for they cannot be kept clean, and so make the milk sour. Always sterilize the bottles thoroughly after using.

Keep the bottle and nipple when not in use lying in a bowl of cold water, to which a little soda may be added.

Keep the milk on ice or boil it in hot weather. A refrigerator will more than pay for its cost in saving food, and in preventing sickness. In hot weather, if you do not take ice, boil the milk as soon as it enters the house and then set it in the coolest place there is.

How to prepare cow's milk. Give the following proportions:

To a baby one month old, one part of milk to two parts of barley water.

To a baby three months old, equal parts of milk and barley water.

To a baby over four months old, more milk than barley water.

To a baby nine months old other food may be given.

If the milk sours on the stomach, add a tablespoonful of lime water.

To make Barley Water. Wash one tablespoonful of pearl barley in cold water, then pour off the water and put the barley in a quart of boiling water.

WORTH A MOUNTAIN OF GOLD

During Change of Life, Says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth a mountain of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

Let it stand covered and warm for three hours, then strain it. Make out meal water the same way.

Other Food: When the centre teeth have come a baby may begin to take bread with its milk, and may have beef tea or mutton broth once a day. Never give cakes, candy, tea, coffee or fruit to a baby. Do not feed it from the table. Never give medicines or prepared foods without a doctor's order.

General Directions

"Bath the baby every morning in water warm enough to take off the chill. If an infant is feverish it may be bathed again at night."

Keep doors and windows open in hot weather.

These rules are printed in five languages: English, French, Greek, Polish and Portuguese.

BIG RECEPTION WAS GIVEN COMMANDER PEARY AT BOWDOIN

BRUNSWICK, Me., June 24.—Commander Peary was given a great reception by Bowdoin his alma mater, yesterday. When he was first introduced at the conclusion of the commencement dinner, the pent up exaltation of the alumni burst forth in a storm of cheers. The class of 1906 sang a parody "has anybody here seen Barton as a tin snail?" in the church. At the conclusion of the after-dinner speaking, the diners and guests adjourned to the Congregational church, across the street from Memorial hall, where the commencement dinner was held, and there Peary was given a greeting that surpassed his first reception as a tin snail. In the church the formal exercises of the Peary greeting were held. President Hyde presided. He introduced as the first speaker Prof. Donald B. McMillan, Peary's chief assistant on his last and final expedition, who was graduated from Bowdoin in 1898. Dean Alfred E. Burton of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology then spoke and Prof. Henry L. L. Chapman, Bowdoin read a poem and General Thomas E. Hubbard, '57, was heard before Commander Peary was welcomed to his feet by cheers that shook the historic old edifice.

Thanking President Hyde for the honorary degree of doctor of laws, conferred upon him yesterday, he said:

"I never knew President Hyde at Bowdoin, but I have known him elsewhere, everywhere taking Bowdoin and for Bowdoin. His work in other places has been as valuable for the college as his 25 years' work at the college. I feel deeply honored by his last act in making me a doctor of laws."

Reverting again to the polar region, he concluded:

"This question of the North pole is something that has held and charmed men of every land for 400 years." He said "One reason of our success was experience, profiting by the mistakes made in previous expeditions."

In the reunion of the class of 1898, Benjamin K. Lovett, of Fall River, Mass., was one of the twelve members present. Among the commencement dinner speakers was Governor Quinby of New Hampshire.

SEVEN NEW PEERS CREATED BY NEW KING OF ENGLAND

LONDON, June 24.—Seven peers were created yesterday in honor of the birthday of King George V, which will be celebrated today, although the king was born on June 3. The new peers include Sir Walter Foster, a noted physician and member of parliament for the Ilkerton division of Derbyshire, Sir Westman Dickinson Pearson and Sir Christopher Furness.

Sir Christopher Furness is the great ship owner, who as a liberal representative of the constituency of Hartlepool in parliament since 1906. He was unseated last May by the court and his recent election declared void on the ground that there had been illegal payments made through his agents. The court stated that Sir Christopher was not personally guilty of corrupt practices, but that he must suffer for the acts of his agents.

Among the baronets created yesterday is Sir Charles Harcourt, brother of Lord Northcliffe. The list of knights includes A. T. Quiller-Couch, the author.

AT WILLOW DALE

KIRK STREET CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HELD PICNIC

The annual outing of the Sunday school of the Kirk Street Congregational church was held at Willow Dale yesterday and about 200 were present. Owing to the fact that the steamboat which runs between the landing and Willow Dale was out of commission barges were used to transport the merry-makers to their destination.

Dinner was served in the upper dining hall of the pavilion at 1 o'clock, and the seating capacity of the dining hall was so heavily taxed that a resulting of one of the long tables was necessary.

After the dinner various sports were enjoyed. The 100 yards dash for boys was run in two heats, and was finally won by John Black, with Howard Alexander second and Howard Foster third.

The 50 yard dash for men was also run off in two heats, and was won by S. A. Foster, with Ralph Currier second.

The potato race for girls was won by Harriet Black, with Annie Tomlinson second and Gloria Phil third.

The three-legged race was won by John Black and Howard Foster, with W. L. Technus and Roland Phil second.

Later in the afternoon there was an exciting ball game between the married men and the unmarried men.

COUNT ZEPPELIN TO BUILD MORE AIRSHIPS FOR REGULAR PASSENGER SERVICE IN GERMANY

DUSSELDORF, Germany, June 24.—

Instead of waiting for trains the business man who wants to go to Friedrichshafen, a distance of 300 miles, has only to find $25 and he can make the journey in nine hours or less in the mammoth airship Deutschland. The first trip of Count Zeppelin's airship was so successful that all Germany is singing his praises. The list of persons who want to make the journey is so great that the police have been compelled to assist the officers of the Deutschland in keeping order. Count Zeppelin has announced that he will begin a regular passenger schedule of the Deutschland within a few days. He promises that his airship will not travel less than forty miles an hour and expects to maintain a rate of over fifty miles an hour. By air the journey between this city and Friedrichshafen has been reduced two hours.

The next few months he will have half a dozen big air crafts that will carry from twenty to fifty passengers each besides mail.

I MAY BE WRONG?

I am told it is a mistake for me to give such Clothing Values now; that because I catch the market demoralized now, is no reason why I should expect to always catch it so.

To Be Exact---I Quote the Words:

"That Because You Got These Woolens for Almost Nothing, Is No Reason Why You Should Throw Them Away."

MY ANSWER: As I get them, I sell them. I have faith in the public. Things may improve in the Fall—they undoubtedly will. But when I have to pay more, I'll charge more, and I know the public will give me what I ask.

Annual Opting

The board of trade has under consideration an outing to be held at the Martin Luther camp on the Merrimack river, in Tyngsboro, in the middle of July. This outing will consist of members of the local board and invited guests from other commercial bodies of the Merrimack valley cities and the discussion will be on the matter of securing some federal attention to the navigability of the river. The members of the legislature from Lowell are also to be guests of the board.

FIRST AIRSHIP PASSENGER LINE

We may defeat the Germans in sporadic spurts of speed in aviation; but the Germans have led all nations in being the first to establish an airship passenger line, demonstrating in a single flight the practicability and reasonable safety of the service.

THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK BILL

The Postal Savings bank bill has been passed by congress. It may help some of the western states, but is not needed in New England. The Postal Savings bank will not pay as high a rate of interest as do the ordinary savings banks, and with the extraordinary precautions against dishonesty, the deposits will be more secure than ever. Moreover, the money deposited in the mutual savings banks will be loaned out to help build up homes and new industries in the surrounding neighborhood. In this way the present banks help the communities in which they are located, but the postal, never.

THE BOSTON SITUATION

Mayor Fitzgerald has failed to convince Governor Draper that the civil service commission is tying his hands by refusing to confirm his appointees. When all this controversy is over will it not appear that the republicans have made a mistake in not placing the responsibility entirely in the mayor's hands? That seemed to be the intent of the charter, but with this apparent obstruction by the civil service commission the mayor will have an excuse if everything is not above criticism. The republicans are thus playing into the hands of the present mayor, although their intention is to embarrass him.

THE NEW YORK KIDNAPPING CASE

The kidnapping case that has aroused New York is another of the Black Hand outrages. If anything ever justified lynching, burning at the stake or death by inches, so to speak, it is this hellish work carried on by the Black Hand society in New York.

The child of a certain Dr. Seineca has been taken and a demand made for a ransom of $3000. The parents have been notified that the child is safe and will be safely returned if the money is forthcoming. The parents are acting with the police for the detection of the kidnappers with but slight chance of success. It seems that in a case of this kind skilled detectives should be able to find the culprits and turn them over for punishment. This crime somewhat resembles the kidnapping of the Cudahy child. The punishment of the culprits should be death.

LET NO HORSE BE LEFT UNHITCHED ON THE STREETS

Two little children, sitting on the curbstone Wednesday evening trying to keep cool, were run over and almost killed by a horse attached to a laundry wagon.

These laundry wagons are quite numerous of late, and they are obliged from the nature of their business to stop frequently along the streets. If left unhitched they are liable to be startled by automobiles or other causes and the result may be as bad or even worse than that of Wednesday evening's accident. If we have not already an ordinance requiring that every horse left standing on the street, even for a minute, shall be securely hitched, the city council should supply the omission without delay.

We do not see why the parents of the children injured in Wednesday night's accident should not be compensated so far as money can do so, for the result of an accident that is due to negligence. Who is responsible? Is it the owner of the wagon or the city that allows such carelessness to be exercised on the public streets?

Nobody is secure in walking the public streets if drivers of wagons are allowed to leave their horses unhitched on the street while they go in to do business in stores, often in their garrulity and thoughtlessness, forgetting all about the horse left standing outside and free to move in any direction when scared or even annoyed by the flies. There have been too many of these runaways and it is time something were done to protect the public against such outrageous carelessness.

AGAINST RACE SUICIDE IN FRANCE

Coming so soon after the speech of Col. Roosevelt on the same subject, the action of the French parliament in taking steps to prevent race suicide is likely to be attributed to the impression made by Roosevelt's speech, but such is not the case.

Statistics just published show that there has been a very serious falling off in the birth rate in France during the past year. In 1909 the number of births was 770,000 while in the preceding year the number was 792,000. That is really an alarming difference, and one that might be expected to arouse the national assembly to action.

What is the remedy proposed? Legislation compelling all state employees who have reached the age of 25 to get married and a provision for a supplementary salary and a pension for those with more than three children. In addition to this the law requiring the equal distribution of property among the children is to be repealed on the ground that opposition to the law is one cause of small families.

In addition to this and perhaps the more sweeping provision of the law is the imposition of additional military service upon bachelors over 20, the object being to force them to get married before that age. As few men at that age want to spend their time in military service, it is quite likely that this law will have the desired effect, in lessening the number of old bachelors.

It is rather strange that such laws should be deemed necessary, and there will be much curiosity as to whether the steps taken will secure the desired end.

BOTH DROWNED

Woman Tried to Save Her Companion

ANNISQUAM, June 24.—The attempt of Miss Mary McKenney to save from drowning Miss Della Healey, both domestics at the summer home here of Count de San Marcano of New York, cost her own life and did not avail in saving her companion, as both were drowned late yesterday. Miss McKenney, who was 40 years old, and, like Miss Healey a native of New York city, went down locked in the grasp of her friend whom she had tried to save. Miss Healey was 28 years old. The women were in bathing.

Was Refused an Interview With James J. Jeffries

RENO, Nev., June 24.—Former Champion John L. Sullivan was told by former Champion James J. Corbett yesterday that his presence was not desired at the camp of former Champion James J. Jeffries.

"Why?" asked Sullivan as he stood at the gate that had been closed to bar him from Jeffries' cottage at Moana Springs.

"Because," replied Corbett, "you by a number of Jeffries' trainers and several newspapermen, is the talk of the town. The outcome is a matter of conjecture.

Speaking for Sullivan, Manager Hall declared that John L. refused to regard Corbett as Jeffries' "spokesman," and he would return to Moana Springs and make another effort to see Jeffries personally.

Speaking for Jeffries, who at the time of Sullivan's call was lounging in his cottage, Manager Sam Berger asserted that Corbett was fully empowered to speak for Jeffries and that if Sullivan made another effort to seek him out, he would find the same reception as yesterday.

"Of course," said Berger "as the public has access to our camp, Sullivan has as much right as anybody else to come and see Jeffries work, but Corbett quoted Jeffries correctly in telling Sullivan that he would have nothing to do with him."

It is said Rickard will try to effect a reconciliation between Sullivan and Jeffries. Jeffries did his first public work in Nevada at Moana Springs yesterday afternoon, in presence of four hundred spectators. The former champion, after a morning session of ball playing, began his real exercises with a vigorous fifteen minutes siege of bag punching. This was followed by a brief invasion of the pulley weight department, and immediately thereafter he started a long rope skipping session. After that he shadow boxed for fifteen minutes, put in three rounds of rough and tumble work with Farmer Burns, and finished his efforts with abdominal exercises of his own creation.

In all, Jeffries' exercises occupied one hour and ten minutes. When asked if the altitude had any effect on his respiration, he replied that he scarcely noticed any change and liked the climate. He admitted, however, that when he started his work his breathing was somewhat labored.

Jeffries says he will resume boxing today. Tom Flanagan received a telegram from Jack Johnson yesterday morning, stating that the negro champion would arrive in Reno today. The message was addressed to T. Flanagan, manager of Jack Johnson.

Just what Johnson meant by that wording after his reported repudiation of George Little as his manager, is a question of general interest.

Promoter Sid Hester yesterday announced that he and Tom O'Day of San Francisco had purchased outright Jack Johnson's interest in the fight pictures and that it was they and not an eastern picture syndicate who had deposited $50,000 to Johnson's account in a San Francisco bank.

LANGFORD-KETCHELL BOUT
RENO, Nev., June 24.—Promoter Sid Hester confirmed the announcement given out by Tom O'Day in San Francisco, concerning the calling off of the Langford-Ketchell match. Hester said:

"I am in receipt of authentic information that Ketchell has not been taking proper care of himself, and is not now and could not get into proper fighting shape. Rather than burden the people of Reno with a match of this sort, I have decided to wash my hands of the whole affair and call it off. Langford, so far as I know, is in fine condition and would enter the ring in fit shape."

BOY WAS SHOT

During Fight Between Officer and Gang

BOSTON, June 24.—One boy was probably fatally shot and a police officer seriously injured as a result of an attack made on the officer in an attempt to rescue a prisoner by the "Keyes Street Gang" in Jamaica Plain last night. Officer Owen A. Katon of station 13 was taking the prisoner, whom he had arrested for drunkenness, to the station, when set upon by some eight members of the gang. The prisoner was freed and the officer beaten over the head with his own club, dragged into a vacant lot and badly pummeled. One of the gang tried to get the officer's revolver and it was discharged, John J. Dolan, aged 22 years, receiving the charge in his lungs.

TAFT WON OUT

In His Fight on the Sundry Civil Bill

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The action of the house of representatives yesterday in receding from its labor amendment to the sundry civil bill marked the successful termination of an all-day fight by President Taft against what he termed class legislation of an improper sort, and apparently removed the last real obstacle in the way of an adjournment of congress within the next few days.

President Taft spent the entire day and bent every energy toward the defeat of the house amendment which proposed to exempt labor unions from the operation of the Sherman anti-trust law. He threw his whole influence into the fight, sending for scores of representatives and urging them to defeat the provision. Mr. Taft declared that if it cost him the support of every laboring man in the country, he would not approve such a provision of law. The laboring man, he believed, asked only equality before the law and was entitled to no more.

It was the president's fight on this amendment to the big supply bill which caused rumors that there undoubtedly would be a delay in adjournment. Mr. Taft felt he had a longer fight before him than proved to be the case, and was doubtful of the result until the vote was finally taken. When informed of the result he made no attempt to conceal his gratification.

Incidentally the president sent a long telegram last night to the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen meeting at St. Paul, in which he outlined his views on the matter. The telegram was in response to a message of protest from the convention. For several days past the White House has been fairly bombarded with letters and telegrams from labor organizations in favor of the house amendment. The messages made public last night were as follows:

St. Paul, Minn., June 23, 1910.

"The President:

"Press reports of today indicate that you favor using the people's money to prosecute labor in their efforts to better conditions. The seven hundred ninety-eight delegates attending the twelfth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen at St. Paul, instruct me to protest against this unjust policy."

W. S. Carter, President.

"Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen."

June 23, 1910.

"W. S. Carter, President, Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen, St. Paul, Minn.

"Your despatch of June 23d, received in which you say that press reports today indicate that I favor using the people's money to prosecute labor in their efforts to better conditions, and you protest against such a policy. I presume you refer to the proposition now before congress, that money appropriated for fiscal year nineteen eleven for enforcement of anti-trust laws, and acts to regulate commerce shall in no part be spent in the prosecution of conspiracies in the nature of boycotts to increase wages, shorten hours, or better the conditions of labor."

"The supreme court has decided that such a boycott is a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, and the proposition is an attempt to withhold the means of prosecuting that law when it is violated by a particular class, thus to be made privileged. I am entirely opposed to such class legislation. If it were proposed to amend the language of the Sherman anti-trust law itself so as to narrow its scope, that would present a proper question for consideration, but so long as the present anti-trust law remains upon the statute books an attempt to modify its enforcement so as to render harmless any particular class of citizens, rich or poor, employers or employees, is tantamount to legislation in my judgment ought to be opposed by your brotherhood."

"The laboring man and the trades unionist, if I understand him, asks only equality before the law. Class legislation and unequal privileges, though expressly in his favor, will in the end work no benefit to him or to society."

"William H. Taft."

AMERICANS HURT

IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT NICE, FRANCE

NICE, France, June 24.—An automobile occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Americans, and Madame Matton, ran into a ditch and was overturned near Castellane, in the department of Basses-Alpes yesterday. Madame Matton was killed outright and Mr. Henry was badly injured. The latter's wife escaped unhurt. The Henrys spent the winter here.

GREAT WILD WEST

RANCH 101 OF MILLER BROS. TO BE HERE JULY 6

Real cowboys and cowgirls, an element of society new to this city, are coming in throngs with the 101 Ranch Wild West on Wednesday, July 6. The 101 Ranch comprises one of the few remaining Oklahoma acreages where the west is still "wild and woolly." Through the years it has retained its interminable sweeps of prairie and its picturesque unconventionality. Its show pictures are of actual, living, frontier west—not the west that can be seen from a car window.

The cowgirl is a development of the stock raising west comparing with the stock raising girl and the independent woman of the east. She is not of the new woman class—not of the sort that discards her feminine attributes and tries to ape the man, simply a lively, athletic young woman with a superfluity of nerves and animal spirits, with a realization that in affairs where skill is the chief qualification she has an equal chance with her brother.

A bitter disappointment is in store for the curious tenderfoot oppressed with a burning desire to behold the real, uncouth and untamed Amazons of the plains. To be sure, it is promised, they can ride the most obstreperous outlaw horse, swing a lariat with certain aim and fondle a gun abstractedly, but they are the sanest, loveliest, happiest assemblage of femininity that ever galloped gleefully around an arena or appeared in a street parade.

The cowboys are permanently on the payroll of Miller Brothers. They are true knights of the plains, injured to hardship, accustomed to lonely days and cheerless nights out on the open Oklahoma range, where the hot sun blisters the flesh and sometimes sandstorms blind the eyes, and winter's blast pierces to the very marrow; where one can gaze as far as the human vision can carry without catching a glimpse of human habitation or of any living creature, except the bunch of cattle that graze contentedly on the dried grass of the prairie.

The ranks of the 101 Ranch Wild West cowboys are alike hardly two days in succession. The "punchers" shuttle between prosaic ranch duty and show display. Today they are riding "chickens" and twisting the lariat for the edification of the amusement loving public; tomorrow they may be on their way to the Oklahoma prairie, reinforced by a comrade fresh from the thirty square miles called "home."

The tournament they give in the arena is a vivid and accurate illustration of their picturesque life on the range. No adjunct is more necessary in all spheres of their routine than the so-called cowhorse. He knows the needs and exigencies of the cattle business as thoroughly as the sunburned man of the plains who sits astride his back. Without the cowhorse there could be no cattle industry on a big scale, for steers could not be captured, "cut out," tied, branded, penned or shipped.

A horse becomes, in the phraseology of the west, a cowhorse when he has served his apprenticeship on the range. The best of them come from the southwest and are worth about $150 in the open market, whereas an equine unschooled in the business of the prairie goes begging at half the price. Fifty mile wanderings, day by day, fatigues them not at all and their sole means of subsistence is prairie grass. Grain is a luxury not vouchsafed them once a year, and sometimes there are twenty-four hour stretches without water. None but cowhorses are in the ranks of the saddle stock of the 101 Ranch Wild West. They are fresh from duty on the famous Oklahoma area, and will reproduce with the cowboys the picturesque routine of the cattle range. Twenty superb specimens of the Texas long horned steer, of whom few now remain in the country, lend a real western atmosphere to the scene. The various other features are innumerable.

Watch Poslam Work

Results Are Seen After a Single Application

Anyone wishing to test poslam, the new skin remedy, for the rapidity of its action should select a red spot, a small part of a surface where the skin is extensively broken out. Surprising results are seen, particularly when poslam is used for red and inflamed noses, fever blisters, pimples, rash, scalp, itching feet, sunburn, etc. The beneficial action of this new healing agent in eczema, acne, psoriasis, barber's itch, piles, etc., begins with first application when all itching is stopped and continues unremittently until its work is done. Cases of these troubles, of years' standing have been completely eradicated by poslam after other remedies were abandoned as ineffectual. A special 50-cent package of poslam is prepared for minor uses and this, as well as the regular $2 jar, is on sale by all druggists, particularly Falls & Burkinshaw, Carter & Sherburne's and the Jaynes Drug Co.

THE HIPPODROME

ANOTHER BIG BILL BOOKED FOR NEXT WEEK

Perin's Hippodrome is certainly setting a pace that is hard to follow and the programs offered at the park are lengthy and original in their makeup and the people of Lowell are certainly getting their money's worth.

Tonight will be amateur night at the park and a long list of would-be performers are down to do a turn and the laughs should be many during their try outs.

On next Sunday night a new program will be offered that will consist of a sacred concert and five reels of new pictures, also some singing acts that will conform to the Lord's day; in all it will be a fine and dignified offering in keeping with the day.

Mr. Perin has booked many big acts that will be presented from time to time and amongst which are Rice and Provost, the world's greatest comedy acrobats; this act is booked at the leading theaters and is the highest priced act of its kind on the stage today. It will be seen here during the week of July 4 with other sensational turns.

HOW TO CURE ECZEMA, PIMPLES, AND DANDRUFF.

We desire to say that when we took the agency for ZEMO, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, pimples, and dandruff. Yet, we must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as ZEMO has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like ZEMO too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use.

ZEMO effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infants.

With every purchase we give a booklet on skin diseases explaining in simple words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp diseases by this clean, scientific remedy. A. W. Dows & Co., druggists.

COL. ROOSEVELT

To Have Gov. Hughes as Guest

NEW YORK, June 24.—"I don't know that I shall ever make another political speech," said Theodore Roosevelt yesterday.

The colonel had just popped out of his editorial office late in the afternoon, his collar wilted with perspiration and his face red from the heat. He saw a group of interviewers and stopped. They told him his first political utterance was waited with the greatest interest—and, when, please, would he make it?

"I have no idea when I shall make a political speech," he replied. "I shall make no speech of any kind for two months, and my first speeches in Kansas City, Chicago, Milwaukee and Chicago will have nothing to do with politics. I don't know that I shall ever make another political speech."

"What, never?" someone exclaimed. "I don't say never," he corrected, "I simply don't know."

His speeches or no speeches, conferences will continue in the afternoon and James W. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, went to Oyster Bay last night to spend the night. Two of three of the Rough Riders will be the colonel's guests at luncheon today. They will return two regimental flags which Col. Roosevelt loaned them for use in the reunion yesterday. Francis J. Heney and "Jack" Greenway, of the Rough Riders, will probably take dinner with the Roosevelt family.

On Saturday, Henry L. Stimson, special prosecutor in the sugar fraud trials, will run down for luncheon and late in the week, probably on Saturday, W. R. Nelson of Kansas City is expected.

Nobody knows when to expect Gov. Hughes. Col. Roosevelt surprised his hearers by informing them that there is at least one man in the country who is too busy just now to visit Sagamore Hill. Gov. Hughes has accepted Col. Roosevelt's invitation, but he explained in his letter of acceptance that he is so much occupied at Albany just now that it is impossible for him to set a date.

Col. Roosevelt did not reach his editorial office until 10:30 o'clock yesterday. The place was boiling all day long. Interviewers, photographers, old friends and people bent on every sort of mission besieged it.

At 1 o'clock he left his offices for the Harvard club, where there were two hours of yarn spinning across the luncheon table. As he entered the dining room, the orchestra struck up, "What's the Matter With Father?" and every Rough Rider, standing in his chair, joined in the chorus. The colonel and his boys found it so interesting swapping stories that he did not get away until 2 o'clock. Instead of 2, as he had planned.

Just as he was leaving the club, the police raided a group of boys who had clambered up the fire escapes to look at "Teddy," but Col. Roosevelt intervened and no arrests were made.

Among the guests at the luncheon were William A. Larned and Robert T. Wrenn, former tennis champions; "Dave" Goodrich, Harvard '98, the oarsman and Rough Rider; John C. Greenway, an old football player, a number of polo players, and several members of the New York stock exchange.

After the luncheon, Col. Roosevelt spent an hour at his editorial office, where he talked with Louis and Temple Abernathy, the boys who rode on horseback from Oklahoma to see him. Then he took an automobile for Oyster Bay.

On Tuesday he will leave for Cambridge, Mass., to attend the Harvard commencement. He expects to be back in New York on Friday, but he may take in the Yale-Harvard boat race at New London, Conn.

GUESTS OF ROOSEVELT
OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 24.—Theodore Roosevelt arrived here by automobile at 8:20 last night. With him were Clifford Pinchot and James R. Garfield, who were his guests over night at Sagamore Hill. Neither would make any statement as to the purpose of their visit.

On the way to the East river ferry Col. Roosevelt stopped for half an hour at the home of Mrs. Bridget Flynn to visit her sister Mrs. Mary Ledwith, who nursed his children during their infancy. Col. Roosevelt kissed her and asked when she was coming down to visit them. She will have a home with the family for the remainder of her days. Mrs. Ledwith is 85 years old and the colonel found her health yesterday not so good as he could have wished.

As he stepped from the house to take his automobile, a crowd of boys who had recognized him begged for a hand shake. He gave them a collective smile and a handshake in answer.

$5000 ROBBERY

Banknotes Stolen From Show Window in Banking Exchange

BOSTON, June 24.—Austrian and Italian banknotes, valued at nearly $5000, which can be readily exchanged, were stolen about 1 yesterday afternoon from a show window in the banking exchange of Julius Rottenberg, 116 Salem street. According to the police theory, there were at least two men concerned in the robbery of the bank, which was carefully planned and executed with boldness.

In addition to his banking business, Rottenberg is a railroad and steamship agent and exchanges money. One of his display windows is filled with coins of different countries, while in the other banknotes are displayed. On some occasions there have been foreign banknotes in the window valued at $1,000,000. Mr. Rottenberg places the money in the windows each morning.

Yesterday morning he filled the windows as usual, and was surprised shortly after 1 when his man, Victor, came to him and said that a hole had been bored through the woodwork from the cellar and that it was apparent that the supply of banknotes had been depleted. He went to the window and found beneath it in the right hand corner of the window a hole about one foot square.

The banker and several of his assistants rushed to the basement, but found the place empty. It was apparent that the thief had reached on a catwalk and had bored upward, by when the hole was bored the banker did not know. He was certain that at least one of the burglars crawled up over the coal chute and placed his hand through the hole, pushing aside the green balize, the police theory is that there was a confederate on the outside, who stood in front of the window and signalled with his feet to the man on the coal chute.

The banking house is on the first floor of a five-story brick building. The burglar found the door to the cellar leading into the cellar. It was found fastened at night, while the banker, or his assistants, before closing time always remove from the windows the currency and coins that have been displayed there during the day.

At the conclusion of the supper an excellent program was carried out. It included a selection by Mr. French on the organ. There followed a reading by Mrs. J. C. Wilson, songs by Charles Howard and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, a recitation by Miss Esther Moller, and chorus singing.

One of the features of the evening was the reading of two original poems by Mrs. Willard A. Wheeler.

A humorous number on the program was the presentation of a "picture gallery" of the members of the club, in disguise, appearing in a large frame, whereupon those not in the secret were obliged to guess their identity.

Mrs. F. B. Brannan and Mrs. Samuel Pickering were in charge of the decorations, which consisted of greenery and cut flowers. Mrs. Fred Balcom and Mrs. W. H. Bond had charge of the program. The daughters of the members served as waitresses at supper.

A BOX PARTY

AT CHURCH OF NOTRE DAME DE LOURDES
A pleasant box party was held last night at the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes for the benefit of the church. The affair was in charge of Miss Blanche Levesque and proved to be a delightful affair.

The boxes were auctioned off by George Labrie and good prices were received by the auctioneer. Besides the contents of the boxes there was ice cream, cake and tonic for sale. Misses Ponce and Rose Ponce and Mrs. Charles Dufault and Mrs. George Levesque presiding at the tables.

The entertainment program was carried out in a very acceptable manner. The Misses Alexander played a duet. George E. Boerger gave a reading. Miss Yvonne Lavigne and Miss Lina Collins played piano solos. John Buckley and Zephrynn Daviau sang. Ed. Gaudette and Miss Blanche Levesque sang a duet, and Mr. Gaudette also sang a duet with George Boerger. Miss Anna Marie Murphy gave a reading "Chants Canadiens" was sung by the church choir.

Miss Mahelle M. Russell entertained the College club yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Stoddart of Columbus. O. Miss Stoddart was a classmate of Miss Russell's at Wellesley.

Bored Hole From Cellar
Communication with police headquarters brought Deputy Supt. Watts, Inspectors Morrissey, Wolf and Lynch to the scene. An examination of the premises satisfied them that the hole bored through the woodwork from the basement when the show window was empty and that the daring thieves returned to the basement shortly after noon yesterday and stole the bank notes.

The green balize concealed the large hole from the view of Banker Rottenberg as he stood his window with the foreign money. Though he is convinced that there was no hole in the floor of the window yesterday morning at 3:30 the police opinion is that the hole existed at that time, and that the thieves who were waiting until the banknotes were put on exhibition. Then came the most daring part of the scheme.

While one of the burglars crawled up over the coal chute and placed his hand through the hole, pushing aside the green balize, the police theory is that there was a confederate on the outside, who stood in front of the window and signalled with his feet to the man on the coal chute.

of the city council, in the month of April, May or June of the current year, three assessors, one to serve for a term beginning with the date of his election, and ending the first Monday of January, 1898; one to serve for a term beginning at the date of his election and ending the first Monday of January, 1899; and in each succeeding year thereafter there shall be elected one assessor, to serve for the term of three years from the first Monday in January of the year in which he is chosen."

And in the same section it is provided that in case of a vacancy in the board of assessors, then any cause the city council shall fill said vacancy by electing a member to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

This is in harmony with the provisions of section 17 of the revised charter setting forth the method for filling vacancies in case of the death, resignation, or removal of any officer elected by the city council. There is absolutely no provision, direct or implied, that if the council fail to elect, the mayor may temporarily appoint. Consequently, it seems clear that in the event of such vacancy, the department where it occurs will remain without an official head until the city council takes action.

This does not mean that the necessary daily routine work will not be done as that may be carried on under the direction of the officer or other employee next in rank in such department. But any act which requires the formal official action of the department head will have to await the pleasure of the city council.

It is possible, though still doubtful, that the mayor in the event that irreparable loss or injury would fall on the city or the business of a department come to a standstill through failure of the city council to act, might in such a contingency take action himself.

But this particular case does not reveal any such emergency.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that Mr. Brogan is not legally entitled to draw a salary for the time during which he assumed to act as a member of the board of assessors.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. W. Duncan, City Solicitor.

GAME TOMORROW

The Y. M. C. A. baseball team will play the Wanderers at Spalding park Saturday afternoon at 3.15 o'clock. These teams are two of the strongest teams in the Lowell & Suburban League, and a good game is promised. The Wanderers have an unbroken string of victories so far this year, and the Y. M. C. A. team, confident of breaking their run, Saturday will probably be in the box for the Wanderers, while Doyle or Stephens will pitch for the Y. M. C. A. team.

very light exercise for several days after his arrival. Boxing he thinks will constitute Johnson's main work thereafter. Managan has been keeping an eye on Jeffries since he came to Reno. He says he is much impressed with Jeffries's appearance and expects to see a long drawn out battle between him and the negro. Cut at Moana Springs Jotties is taking life easy. Not even the Sullivan incident has caused a perceptible ripple in the cheerful spirit he has shown since coming to Nevada and his trainers expressed themselves as fully satisfied that no ill effects will be had from his coming here.

With both fighters settled in their camps, work on the arena under way and with prospect of no further interference in preparation for the battle Reno is settling down to comparative quiet.

Quiet is strictly comparative, however, for not in many years, citizens say, has the town sheltered so cosmopolitan a gathering as now nightly along its cafe and places of chance, but sort of thing is a great novelty at the eastern visitors and most of them seem bent on missing nothing that is supposed to happen in stories they have read of life in the great west. Reno herself is beginning to take notice of her gambling hall activities.

HOT WEATHER SELLING

Must be interesting; otherwise business would come to a standstill when the thermometer begins to climb. The fact that we are busy day after day when the warm weather would naturally keep people at home shows that when the women do come out to shop the majority of them seek this store. There are several reasons why this is so in hot weather—as well as cold. Correct styles, reliable qualities, low prices, polite service, a cool, clean store and your money back for the asking, are all factors in making this store the favorite summer shopping place of Lowell.

Suit Department

Save yourself all the worry and bother of looking around this hot weather for new summer dresses by coming here to our department first. Nine times out of ten you will find just the garments to please you at prices you will be perfectly willing to pay. Ours Are the Better Kind

All shirt waists are good; some are better than others; ours are of the better kind. A little better cloth, a little better fit, a little better sewing, a little more care all around, makes a good deal better garment. Our waists are of the kind that just suit particular people; of sheer, dainty fabrics, trimmed with neat embroideries and laces, they have an air and an appearance about them that speak of coolness and comfort, even on the warmest days. We are particularly desirous that you should see the large variety of waists we are showing this week at

98c, $1.49, $1.98 and $2.49

With over a hundred different models to choose from—short sleeves, long sleeves, high neck and Dutch neck. All sizes to 48.

A Parasol Surprise

We have been waiting for parasol weather all through the month but the weather man has been disappointing us, and the hot, sunny days have kept away. We made up our mind long ago that when the weather came right we would make the most of it and we would turn over our stock of parasols to our friends and customers at prices that would make the department a bargain centre until the last parasol is sold. Here they are—the very best of summer styles tagged at prices you might expect at the end of the season, but scarcely now.

CLOSING EXERCISES

Held at St. Michael's School
Last Evening

The annual closing exercises of St. Michael's parochial school were held last evening in the basement of the church and were of the high order characteristic of this school and its teachers, the Dominican nuns.

Despite the hot weather, a large gathering of friends of the graduates and pupils attended, the basement being comfortably filled. The exercises took place on a temporary and neatly decorated stage within the sanctuary hall. In the rear of the stage in the center was a large portrait of Rev. John J. Shaw, the zealous pastor of St. Michael's church, who is particularly interested in the school work. This year's showing has been particularly gratifying to both pastor and teachers. The attendance has averaged 550 daily, an increase over the year preceding, while the results have been most satisfactory.

At the conclusion of the program
Rev. Fr. Shaw addressed the graduates on the importance of a true Catholic

EMPIRE THEATRE

The Reception of Roosevelt in New York on June 18 is the feature picture
at the Empire, and this subject makes a real feature. First the subject is one in which we are all interested and would like to have been in New York
to welcome Roosevelt home, and now we are able to see how our fellow citizens treated him. And then the photography is so good. The picture is clear and you can get a true knowledge of all that went on the day Roosevelt
came home.

To make the show complete, Netta
Kline shows a novelty singing and dancing act, and Reynolds & Anderson in their comedy singing and talking sketch keep up a continuous roar.
Then there are several dramatic and
comic moving pictures.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

Manager Jos. J. Flynn is very much elated over the attendance at Lakeview theatre this week, and he should be for the crowds have been more than double what they were a year ago at this time which is probably due in part to the excellent company that is presented "The Dairy Farm" all this week.

For the offering next week a rail-licking farce comedy called "The Other Girl" is the attraction. It is in four acts and all the players will be seen to advantage in their respective roles, and the curtain rises at 2.15 and 8.15.

Mr. Jas. Thatcher, playing the part of "Bruno Madeli," a young man who gets into all sorts of trouble, is said to be very funny. Performance given every afternoon with the exception of Monday and every evening, to advantage in their respective roles, and the curtain rises at 2.15 and 8.15.

EXPRESS DELIVERY

Mass Meeting Called to Protest
Against Its Limit

A mass meeting for the purpose of starting an organized protest against the present system of delivering express packages in this city will be held under the auspices of the board of trade at the rooms of that body next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The board of trade has been studying this important subject for some time and is prepared to start an organized movement for a general delivery within the city limits.

The board invites the public, particularly those who live in the districts shut out by the express companies, and a large attendance is desired.

The delivery limit set by the American Express Co. eliminates practically all of Pawtucketville, farther Chelmsford street and the upper Highlands.

Gives the Highest Praise to the

Hallet & Davis Piano

Abbe Perosi is the great successor of Palestrina as director of the Sistine Choir, which sings only for the Pope. The Abbe is known the world over, and is unquestionably one of the leading musical authorities.

Paris was in a furor recently when the Abbe conducted one of his oratorios at the Trouadero. His coming to America next fall is eagerly awaited by musical people everywhere. He has composed over 20 famous oratorios.

This is the first time the Abbe has ever endorsed a piano, and the following appreciation is absolutely voluntary:

April 22, 1910.

Hotel Vauillefont, Paris.

To Gustin Wright Co., Paris:—

During my visit to your warerooms this morning I had the pleasure of trying the small grand Hallet & Davis of Boston piano, and I take pleasure in adding my testimonial to those of the eminent artists you have already received.

The purity and sweetness of tone, mingled with such a delicacy of touch, make this instrument stand in the front rank of the world's pianos and meets the most difficult artistic requirements.

Sincerely,

M. Lorenzo Perosi,
Director Sistine Choir, Vatican, Rome.

Our book on piano construction should be in the hands of those who expect to buy. Write for it—it's free.

WORTH A MOUNTAIN
OF GOLDDuring Change of Life,
Says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth a mountain of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Chas. Barclay, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life.

STOCK MARKET

LITTLE ACTIVITY AT THE CLOSING
HOUR THIS AFTERNOON

Buying By Shorts Induced An Upward
Tendency—Recoveries Ran To A Whole Point In A Few Cases

NEW YORK, June 24.—The opening movement of prices of stocks showed some hesitation and only languid interest was manifest in the speculation. Union Pacific rose 5-8 and American Steel Foundries 1-8. Consolidated Gas and Pullman were a point higher at one time and International Harvester 1-8.

The moderate selling of stocks was renewed when the price of wheat turned upwards after its opening decline. All classes of stocks were affected and numerous declines of a point or more were shown. Bonds were irregular.

Selling of stocks was widespread following the appearance of Attorney Gen. Wickersham, Chicago address on government regulation of capital issues. St. Northern pfd. fell 3 points, U. P. 2 1/4; Reading, Atlantic Coast Line, Am. Car and Steel, Sheffield Steel and many others a point or more.

The selling movement ran itself out and the market came to a standstill. U. P. showed a loss of 3 points and Republic Steel pfd. 2. The tone was a trifle steadier at 2 o'clock.

The market closed easy and dull. Buying by shorts to cover induced an upward tendency, while there was a lack of selling orders. Recoveries ran to a point in a few cases. Prices ran off again with some increase of activity.

Boston Copper Market
BOSTON, June 24.—Local copper stocks lacked animation today and from a firm opening, fell off steadily and became very weak at noon.

Spot Cotton
NEW YORK, June 24.—Cotton spot closed dull. Mid Ups 16.06; Mid Gulf 15.50. Sales 100 bales.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, June 24.—Despatches to R. G. Dun & Co. at the leading centers of the United States tell of a fairly good distribution to more reasonable weather and a better demand in wholesale departments. At Boston retail sales have been large in all kinds of seasonable merchandise and conditions are more encouraging than at any previous time this season. Wholesale dry goods houses also report fair activity. Cotton market conditions, however, show no improvement and curtailment extends. In woolen goods the outlook is somewhat brighter but buyers move cautiously.

Bank exchanges at all leading cities in the United States this week aggregate, $2,443,383,013, a loss of 14.0 per cent compared with last year.

WAGE ADVANCE

For 2,500 Boston & Maine Employees

BOSTON, June 24.—Twenty-five hundred employees of the Boston & Maine railroad were granted an advance in wages, ranging as from 2 to 25 cents a day, at a conference between the men and Supt. G. E. Lee. Those affected are baggage men, station men and crossing tenders at all stations and receiving clerks, delivery clerks, checkers and freight handlers at all stations outside of the Boston terminal division.

An advance of less than $1.55 a day are to be advanced 10 cents a day; those receiving from $1.55 to $1.95 will get 22 cents; those getting $2 to $2.05 are advanced 22 cents; those receiving from $2.10 to $2.20 go to $2.25, and all earning $2.25 and above will be advanced 25 cents a day.

DEATHS

WINTERS—The many friends of Mrs. Mary J. Winters will be pained to learn of her sad demise which occurred at her late residence, 15 Oak street, Thursday evening. She was the wife of John H. Winters, the well known policeman. She leaves four children besides her husband to mourn her loss; also her father, Jeremiah J. Harrington, driver the steamer 4; one sister and four brothers.

CHEANEY—News has been received in this city of the death of Mr. Lewis Cheaney, at Lubec, Me., Monday, June 20th. He was a former resident of this city and was employed for a number of years by the late firm of Miller Brothers, grocers, corner of Bridge and Third streets. Mr. Cheaney was well known here, and his many friends will mourn his untimely death. Burial took place Thursday, June 23d, at Lubec, Me.

MACKENZIE—The many Lowell friends of Arthur W. Mackenzie will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred Sunday last at his home, 226 Lamartine street, Jamaica Plain. The cause of death was heart trouble induced by the onset of several attacks of rheumatic fever. During his last sickness, which was of several weeks' duration, everything that medical science could suggest was resorted to and several times it appeared that the patient was on the mend, but previous attacks had so undermined him that the response to treatment proved but temporary. He bore his sufferings with great patience and his own concern to the end was for the welfare of his relatives who survive him, principally among whom are his wife, mother, two sisters and a brother. Mr. Mackenzie was for years a summer resident of Sudew, Williams, and as such, made many friends among the Lowell colony.

The funeral took place Wednesday from his late home, and burial was in Forest Hill cemetery.

SOWSA—Frank Sowsa, infant son of Antonio and Anna De Caracosa Sowsa, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents, 16 Penn avenue, aged eight months.

RICHARDS—James Richards, infant son of James and Mary Richards, died this morning at the home of his parents, 17 Anderson street.

I MAY BE WRONG?

I am told it is a mistake for me to give such Clothing Values now; that because I catch the market demoralized now, is no reason why I should expect to always catch it so.

To Be Exact--I Quote the Words:

"That Because You Got These Woolens for Almost Nothing, Is No Reason Why You Should Throw Them Away."

MY ANSWER: As I get them, I sell them. I have faith in the public. Things may improve in the Fall—they undoubtedly will. But when I have to pay more, I'll charge more, and I know the public will give me what I ask.

The new membership committee, which has set a mark of 1000 members of the board to be attained, will hold a meeting tonight. Other committee meetings today include a joint meeting of the committees on transportation and manufacturing and mercantile affairs to arrange for an appeal to be sent to Washington in reply to the adverse report made by the army engineer on the Merrimack River navigation project.

The members of the legislature from Lowell are also to be guests of the board.

We may defeat the Germans in sporadic spurts of speed in aviation; but the Germans have led all nations in being the first to establish an airship passenger line, demonstrating in a single flight the practicability and reasonable safety of the service.

THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK BILL

The Postal Savings bank bill has been passed by congress. It may help some of the western states, but is not needed in New England. The Postal Savings bank will not pay as high a rate of interest as do the ordinary savings banks, and with the extraordinary precautions against dishonesty, the deposits will be more secure than ever. Moreover, the money deposited in the mutual savings banks will be loaned out to help build up homes and new industries in the surrounding neighborhood. In this way the present banks help the communities in which they are located, but the postal, never.

THE BOSTON SITUATION

Mayor Fitzgerald has failed to convince Governor Draper that the civil service commission is tying his hands by refusing to confirm his appointees. When all this controversy is over will it not appear that the republicans have made a mistake in not placing the responsibility entirely in the mayor's hands? That seemed to be the intent of the charter, but with this apparent obstruction by the civil service commission the mayor will have an excuse if everything is not above criticism. The republicans are thus playing into the hands of the present mayor, although their intention is to embarrass him.

THE NEW YORK KIDNAPPING CASE

The kidnapping case that has aroused New York is another of the Black Hand outrages. If anything ever justified lynching, burning at the stake or death by inches, so to speak, it is this hellish work carried on by the Black Hand society in New York.

The child of a certain Dr. Scineca has been taken and a demand made for a ransom of $8000. The parents have been notified that the child is safe and will be safely returned if the money is forthcoming. The parents are acting with the police for the detection of the kidnappers with but slight chance of success. It seems that in a case of this kind skilled detectives should be able to find the culprits and turn them over for punishment. This crime somewhat resembles the kidnapping of the Cudaby child. The punishment of the culprits should be death.

LET NO HORSE BE LEFT UNHITCHED ON THE STREETS

Two little children, sitting on the curbstone Wednesday evening trying to keep cool, were run over and almost killed by a horse attached to a laundry wagon.

These laundry wagons are quite numerous of late, and they are obliged from the nature of their business to stop frequently along the streets. If left unhitched they are liable to be startled by automobiles or other causes and the result may be as bad or even worse than that of Wednesday evening's accident. If we have not already an ordinance requiring that every horse left standing on the street, even for a minute, shall be securely hitched, the city council should supply the omission without delay.

We do not see why the parents of the children injured in Wednesday night's accident should not be compensated so far as money can do so, for the result of an accident that is due to negligence. Who is responsible? Is it the owner of the wagon or the city that allows such carelessness to be exercised on the public streets?

Nobody is secure in walking the public streets if drivers of wagons are allowed to leave their horses unhitched on the street while they go in to do business in stores, often in their garrulity and thoughtlessness, forgetting all about the horse left standing outside and free to move in any direction when scared or even annoyed by the flies. There have been too many of these runaways and it is time something were done to protect the public against such outrageous carelessness.

AGAINST RACE SUICIDE IN FRANCE

Coming so soon after the speech of Col. Roosevelt on the same subject, the action of the French parliament in taking steps to prevent race suicide is likely to be attributed to the impression made by Roosevelt's speech, but such is not the case.

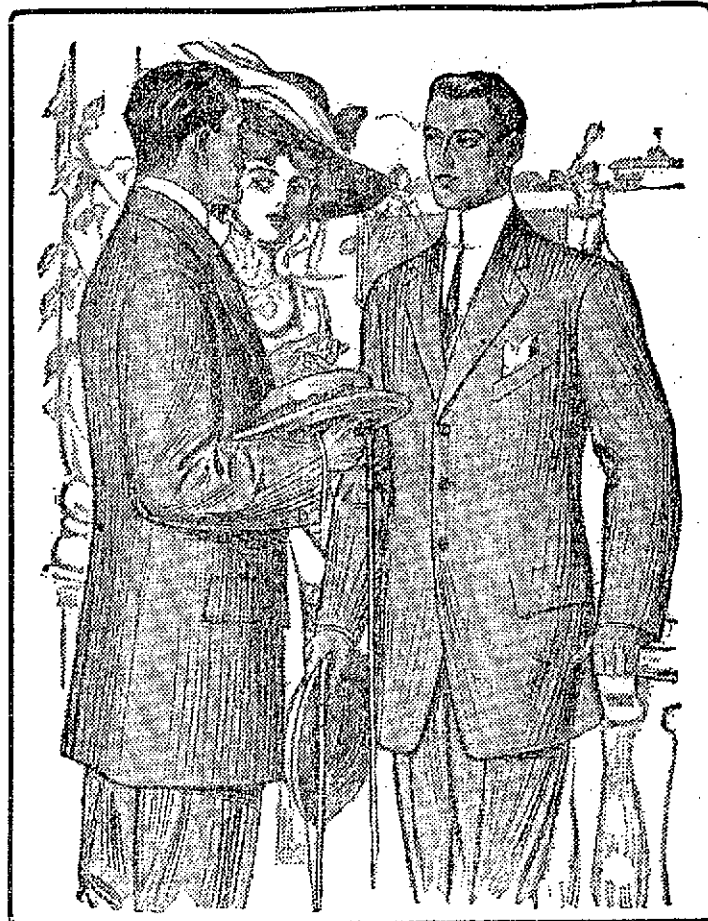

Statistics just published show that there has been a very serious falling off in the birth rate in France during the past year. In 1909 the number of births was 770,000 while in the preceding year the number was 792,000. That is really an alarming difference, and one that might be expected to arouse the national assembly to action.

What is the remedy proposed? Legislation compelling all state employees who have reached the age of 25 to get married and a provision for a supplementary salary and a pension for those with more than three children. In addition to this the law requiring the equal distribution of property among the children is to be repealed on the ground that opposition to the law is one cause of small families.

In addition to this and perhaps the more sweeping provision of the law is the imposition of additional military service upon bachelors over 20, the object being to force them to get married before that age. As few men at that age want to spend their time in military service, it is quite likely that this law will have the desired effect, in lessening the number of old bachelors.

It is rather strange that such laws should be deemed necessary, and there will be much curiosity as to whether the steps taken will secure the desired end.

SALARY OF $5000

ERNST AND EMERSON GET GOOD POSITIONS

BOSTON, June 24.—Surprise was general at city hall yesterday when information came that George A. O. Ernst, a member of the original finance commission and a consistent opponent of Mayor Fitzgerald, had been appointed head of the new bureau of municipal research by the members of the finance commission at their meeting yesterday. The position carries a salary of $5000 a year.

At the same time the commission named Guy C. Emerson, until recently superintendent of streets, consulting engineer of the bureau with a similar salary. The appointment of Emerson was not wholly unexpected, as it had been generally understood that he would receive a consulting position in connection with the work of the investigating body.

BRIBERY CHARGED

Ex-Alderman of Lawrence Principal Witness in Case

SALEM, June 24.—The entire time of the superior criminal court yesterday, over which Justice Schofield is presiding, was occupied in the trial of Samuel Kress of Lawrence, charged in 13 counts with bribery in connection with the confirmation of the chief engineer of the fire department of Lawrence in 1909 and later in the same year in connection with an attempt to remove the same official.

The chief witness of the day was ex-Alderman Legendre, who was an alderman of Lawrence in 1909 and who testified that Kress came to him when J. A. Hamilton was a candidate for confirmation, as Hamilton had agreed to give him the work on the fire department wagons.

He said he told the witness if he would vote for Hamilton, he (Kress) would do $100 worth of work for him on his wagons free. Later witness said that Kress recanted a bill for work amounting to $105.

In December of the same year when Mayor White wished to remove Hamilton, Kress came to witness, the latter testified, and said Hamilton had not given him the work promised and asked him to vote for removal and promised him $200 down and $300 later if he would do so.

At a later date the offer, he said, was increased to $500 with the privilege of naming a policeman which Kress said was worth $500 more. Witness said he preferred the money and the offer was then made of $1000 to go out of the meeting for five minutes, so there would be a majority for removal and the money was placed in the hands of a man named Dube to give to witness if he left the meeting on an arranged signal to be given by the mayor.

Witness did not do this and Kress came for the money and finally got it back.

On cross examination the witness admitted that he had also received another $100 for voting to confirm Hamilton, which he said came from Hamilton, being given him by one Minan after the vote confirming Hamilton had been taken.

He said he did not vote as he did on account of these payments, although he took them, but "to fool the mayor, who wanted to nominate Hamilton and not have him confirmed."

Witness also admitted that when the investigation before the grand jury was begun, he had gone to Canada and that his counsel came to Montreal to meet him and by his advice he returned and testified before the grand jury.

He professed that he did not understand that he was to have immunity for so doing, although he knew that he was also under indictment. Legendre was still on the stand under cross examination when court adjourned.

MADE SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT

NEWBURYPORT, June 24.—Maintaining a height of from 60 to 70 feet, William Hilliard in a Burgess biplane succeeded in flying approximately three miles without alighting, shortly after dawn today. Hilliard was in the air five minutes. Leaving the shed Hilliard crossed Plum Island river several times on the flight as far as Plum Island, where he changed his course slightly, flying in the old ball grounds. At this point he made a pretty turn and on his return to the shed followed the old Plum Island turnpike. Hilliard intends to make another air journey tonight of a much longer duration.

WHITE SLAVE CASE

JOHN BROWN MUST FACE TWO CHARGES NOW

BOSTON, June 24.—A young man giving the name of John Brown, which is not believed to be his right name, was arrested yesterday charged with enticing Isabelle Irving, alias Goldie Pennington, to live an immoral life.

The girl was arrested Monday evening charged with solicitation. The story she told the police involved John Brown as the man responsible for her shame. The two have been living together, it is said, at 26 Dartmouth street, till the arrest of the girl caused Brown to disappear. Yesterday he was seen in Scollay square, however, by Special Policeman Grant, who arrested him.

When he was searched certain pictures were found on his person which caused the police to place against him a second charge. He was taken to Charles street jail in default of $500 bail and will be in court today to answer to the charges against him.

Will be two days of extraordinary value giving in this monster JUNE BARGAIN SALE. Crowds were drawn to the store yesterday by the irresistible bargains—half the magnetism is in the underselling prices—the other half in the quality of the merchandise—all new goods. GREAT WILD WEST

Real cowboys and cowgirls, an element of society new to this city, are coming in throngs with the 101 Ranch Wild West on Wednesday, July 5. The 101 Ranch comprises one of the few remaining Oklahoma acreages where the west is still "wild and woolly." Through the years it has retained its interminable sweeps of prairie and its picturesque unconventionality. Its show pictures are of actual living, frontier west—not the west that can be seen from a car window.

The cowgirl is a development of the stock raising west comparing with the bachelor girl and the independent woman of the east. She is not of the new woman class—not of the sort that discards her feminine attributes and tries to ape the man, simply a lively, athletic young woman with a superfluity of nerves and animal spirits, with a realization that in affairs where skill is the chief qualification she has an equal chance with her brothers.

A bitter disappointment is in store for the curious tenderfoot oppressed with a burning desire to behold the real, uncouth and untrifled Amazons of the plains. To be sure, it is promised, they can ride the most obstreperous outlaw horse, swing a lariat with certain aim and fondle a gun abstractedly, but they are the sauciest, loveliest, happiest assemblage of femininity that ever galloped gleefully around an arena or appeared in a street parade.

The cowboys are permanently on the payroll of Miller Brothers. They are true knights of the plains, hured to hardship, accustomed to lonely days and cheerless nights out on the open Oklahoma range, where the hot sun blisters the flesh and sometimes sandstorms blind the eyes, and winter's blast pierces to the very marrow; where one can gaze as far as the human vision can carry without catching a glimpse of human habitation or of any living creature, except the bunch of cattle that graze contentedly on the dried grass of the prairie.

The ranks of the 101 Ranch Wild West cowboys are alike hardly two days in succession. The "punchers" fluctuate between prosaic ranch duty and show display. Today they are riding "buckers" and twisting the lariat for the edification of the amusement loving public; tomorrow they may be on their way to the Oklahoma prairie, replaced by a comrade fresh from the thirty square miles called "home."

The tournament they give in the arena is a vivid and accurate illustration of their picturesque life on the range. No adjunct is more necessary in all spheres of their routine than the so-called cowhorse. He knows the needs and exigencies of the cattle business as thoroughly as the sombreroed man of the plains who sits astride his back. Without the cowhorse there could be no cattle industry on a big scale for steers could not be captured, "cut out," tied, branded, penned or shipped.

A horse becomes, in the phraseology of the west, a cowhorse when he has served his apprenticeship on the range. The best of them come from the southwest and are worth about $150 in the open market, whereas an equine unschooled in the business of the prairie goes begging at half the price. Fifty mile wanderings, day by day, fatigue them not at all and their sole means of subsistence is prairie grass. Grain is a luxury not vouchsafed them once a year, and sometimes there are twenty-four hour stretches without water.

None but cowhorses are in the ranks of the saddle stock of the 101 Ranch Wild West. They are fresh from duty on the famous Oklahoma area, and will reproduce with the cowboys the picturesque routine of the cattle range. Twenty superb specimens of the Texas long horned steer, of whom a few now remain in the country, lend a real western atmosphere to the scene. The various other features are innumerable.

Graduation Exercises at St. Louis' Parochial School

The initial graduation exercises of St. Louis' parochial school in West Centralville were held last night in the school hall before a large audience made up of pupils of the school, many of their parents and a number of invited guests.

A feature of the exercises was the demonstration of the ability of the pupils in the musical studies. The principal number on the long and varied program was the rendition of Thompson's "Come Where the Lilies Bloom" by a chorus of 122 voices. The piano work was especially good, there being numbers on the program which included pieces for eight, 16, 20 and 24 hands on four pianos.

There were 17 graduates in the class, eight girls and nine boys. Of the number eight received French and English diplomas. They were: Yvonne Asselin, Donat Gervais, Harvey Lolselle, Ludger Dionne, Charles Dionne, Laura Emmond, Edouard Laflamme, Helene Delisle. The other nine received the English diploma only. They were: Eugene Bissonnette, Evelina Daigle, Agnes Chamberlain, Alice Dallaire, Louisiana Grondine, Alpha Primeau, Charles Fillion, Joseph Savignac, Alma Boulanger.

Those receiving in addition the archdiocesan diploma were: Harvey Lolselle, Agnes Chamberlain, Eugene Bissonnette, Alice Dallaire, Laura Emmond, Yvonne Asselin, Evelina Daigle, Donat Gervais, Ludger Dionne, Edouard Laflamme, Louisiana Grondine.

Surprising results are seen, particularly when psalam is used for red and inflamed noses, fever blisters, pimples, rash, scaly scalp, itching feet, sunburn, etc. The beneficial action of this new healing agent in eczema, acne, pruritis, barber's itch, piles, etc., begins with first application when all itching is stopped and continues unremittently until its work is done. Cases of these troubles, of years' standing have been completely eradicated by psalam after other remedies have been ineffectual.

HOW TO CURE ECZEMA, PIMPLES, AND DANDRUFF.

We desire to say that when we took the agency for ZEMO, we were convinced that it was a valuable remedy for Eczema, pimples, and dandruff. Yet, we must frankly admit that Zemo has far exceeded our expectations as a treatment for skin diseases. We are pleased to state that we shall continue the agency as ZEMO has given splendid results wherever recommended. Our customers like ZEMO too, because it is a clean vegetable liquid for external use.

ZEMO effects its cures by drawing to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the itching, leaving the skin clear and healthy. It does not soil the clothing or linen and can be used freely on infants.

With every purchase we give a booklet on skin diseases explaining in simple words how any person can be cured at home of any form of skin or scalp diseases by this clean, scientific remedy. A. W. Down & Co., druggists.

BROCKTON MAN

Charged With Assault
With Gun

SKOWHEGAN, Me., June 24.—On Wednesday night Deputy Sheriff Blake and Collingsworth of Plymouth county, Mass., arrived in town by automobile armed with regulation pistols to take to Brockton Clarence Greenleaf, wanted by the police on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Greenleaf was arrested in Madison Monday night. He was employed there as a spinner in the Madison woolen mill. In Brockton it is alleged he shot William Ambro, a motorman, whom he alleged had been intimate with his wife.

Greenleaf, after his arrest, said that Ambro, the man assaulted, was a French Canadian, 54 years old, and the father of 12 children. He boarded at Greenleaf's house. On April 15, 1909, Greenleaf claims he was driven from his home by his wife who, he said, had become infatuated with Ambro.

The shooting, so Greenleaf stated, occurred on May 30, 1909. From a son of Ambro he learned that the father was carrying a revolver. The prisoner was standing in the street at a transient station when the car came along. Ambro made signs at him and he was so angered that he pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot him twice. Greenleaf then went and gave himself up to the police, so he said.

An indictment was returned against him and he was taken to the insane asylum at Taunton for observation. From this he escaped. This was Oct. 28 last. At that time he had but three cents. He was located in New York, but managed to dodge the police.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenleaf are the parents of two children. One is with the mother; the other, so the Brockton sheriff's stated, has been hidden by the father.

Greenleaf claimed to be a native of Starks and that several years ago he worked in Madison in the office of the Madison Bulletin. He said the reason the Massachusetts officers had gone to the trouble and expense to take him back to Brockton was because his wife and Ambro were afraid he might come back and shoot them.

When arrested by Sheriff Moores Greenleaf had been in Madison nearly two months. The Brockton officers said Greenleaf was implicated in taking some funds and was located in Seattle and brought back east.

STOVE EXPLODED

DAMAGE DONE IN A HOME AT SACO, ME.

SACO, Me., June 24.—The explosion of a range in the summer kitchen of the residence of Horace S. Hall, superintendent of the York company, yesterday morning, blew the stove to atoms, demolished a work table and filled the walls and ceiling with scraps of iron, doing about $100 worth of damage.

Mrs. Hall had a narrow escape from death. She had just left the room, when there was an explosion that shook the house as if by an earthquake. She rushed to the kitchen, grabbed a pail of water and dashed it on the incipient fire. The room was filled with smoke and the furniture was upside down. A second pail of water put the fire out.

There were dozens of holes in the walls and ceiling as big as a man's fist. The panels of doors were filled with holes and bits of cutlery, while the floor was torn from a door leading to the stable. The dishes in the stove were thrown from the shelves. Plumbers and stove men who were called said they never saw a stove so completely demolished or a room so much damaged by an explosion of this kind.

The stove was set up yesterday and connected with a hot water tank. Then the water was turned on, or, at least, it was supposed to have been. An investigation after the explosion revealed that by mistake it had only been partly turned on, and what water entered the pipes in the stove was quickly converted into steam by the hot fire Mrs. Hall built to get breakfast.

The dishes in the stove were thrown from the shelves. Plumbers and stove men who were called said they never saw a stove so completely demolished or a room so much damaged by an explosion of this kind.

The stove was set up yesterday and connected with a hot water tank. Then the water was turned on, or, at least, it was supposed to have been. An investigation after the explosion revealed that by mistake it had only been partly turned on, and what water entered the pipes in the stove was quickly converted into steam by the hot fire Mrs. Hall built to get breakfast.
